

San Juan Islands Food Hub

Producer Commitment

The mission of the San Juan Islands Food Hub (SJIFH) is to increase the production and sales of local food in San Juan County to support a viable agricultural economy, strengthen food security, and promote access to healthy, sustainably grown food. SJIFH is incorporated as a multi-stakeholder cooperative association under the laws of the State of Washington for the purpose of facilitating the sale, aggregation, distribution, and marketing of agricultural products produced by its members.

■ Pledge

By signing this pledge, I verify that information I have provided to SJIFH about my operation, including as part of my online producer profile and product descriptions, is complete, accurate, true and valid. I have also provided complete and current documentation as part of my application. I understand that any knowing inaccuracy or failure to provide complete, proper, and current information and documentation will jeopardize my ability to sell products through SJIFH and, potentially, my SJIFH membership. I understand that it is my responsibility to update pertinent information and documentation in a timely manner.

■ Agreement to Terms and Conditions

By signing this pledge, I affirm that I have read and understand the SJIFH Market Manual and the policies outlined therein. I have also read and understand the Membership Equity Agreement and agree to the terms and conditions outlined therein.

■ Membership Dues

By signing this pledge, I understand that, as per the SJIFH Bylaws, a Producer must pay annual dues in the amount of $25.00 for an Island Grown member or $50.00 for a non-Island Grown member, in order to sell through SJIFH. I understand that annual dues are waived for 2020 and for the first year of membership for Producers who first become active in 2021 and thereafter. I understand that should I elect not to sell through SJIFH during the SJIFH fiscal year, I need not pay annual dues for that year. I understand, however, that in order for my business to sell through SJIFH, my dues must be current.
